JOIN US FOR A CELEBRATION OF SURVIVAL AND LIFE

Sponsored by The University of Chicago Medical Center and The University of Chicago Cancer Research Center.

Please join us for an afternoon of sharing, encouragement, and hope on June 8, 2008, at our eighteenth anniversary of National Cancer Survivors Day. A “survivor” is anyone who has ever been diagnosed with cancer. Your family, friends and children are welcome, too. Please note the date has been moved to the second Sunday.

- Exhibit booths, hors d'oeuvres and refreshments. Noon-12:50 PM.
- Master of Ceremonies, Jon Duncanson, CBS-2 News Anchor.
- Remarks by Olufunmilayo Olopade, M.D., Oncologist & Director of Cancer Risk Genetics Clinic.
- Special kids program: face painting, balloons, and magic show.

- Entertainment by Blues Singer, Lynne Jordan & The Shivers 1:30 PM.

- Keynote address by Rue McClanahan, breast cancer survivor and actress. Ms. McClanahan has been acting professionally for over 50 years, but people remember her best as the southern belle, Blanche on the longtime hit television show The Golden Girls. It won her an Emmy for outstanding lead actress in a Comedy Series in 1987.

In her recently published autobiography, Rue writes honestly about the glories of a long Hollywood career, but also about topics such as divorce, the loss of loved ones, and the shock of having breast cancer.

Please RSVP by June 4. Call (773) 702-9200 or 1-888-UCH-0200.

Admission is free.

Parking is available for $16 at the Westin Hotel and at nearby parking lots.
